

NJADONA Writing/Newsletter Submission Guidelines:

1. Select a topic of interest and/or one you can discuss freely.
2. Any and all references MUST be cited. The exception would be if the content of the article is the writers OWN PERSONAL EXPERIENCE. This MUST be indicated so that the reader does not mistake the writers experience or OPINION to be FACTUAL.
3. Authors/Writers must be identified. (e. "My 2012 NJDOH Survey Experience" JBoney, RN, DON, Happy Hills Care Center, Happyville, NJ).
4. Writing style may be personal or more technical as article content requires. Writing that is difficult to follow, unclear, or with grammatical errors, may be returned to the writer for revisions.
5. All articles submitted will be published at the discretion of the Newsletter editor/reviewer. Submission of an article does not guarantee publication.
6. NJADONA may chose to include a disclaimer indicating that specific article publication does not indicate endorsement by the Association, and may be the sole experience or opinion of the writer.
